

About All India Institute of Local Self-Government (AIILSG):

Founded in 1926, AIILSG is one of the oldest NGOs in India and the Asia region. Headquartered in Mumbai, AIILSG has 30 offices in India including in major cities like Pune, Delhi, Bengaluru, Chennai among others which are spread across the entire country. It has in-house multi disciplinary human resource apart from the wide pool of associate experts. This and its international linkages have endowed AIILSG with the capability of undertaking equity & inclusion related initiatives throughout India & with other countries too.

About AIILSG and its International Center of EQUI-T

AIILSG's poverty-reduction, equity, inclusion related activities and its international collaborations are anchored at its 'International Center of Equity and Inclusion for Transformation' (ICEQUI-T). The center has been established with the aim of 'enabling life of dignity and equality for the disadvantaged'.

The center addresses holistic development issues of the under-privileged populations with special focus on children & women. The center strives to develop social innovations to address diverse development issues on ground, undertake community interventions & field actions to enable effective social transformation & to contribute towards attainment of United Nations 'Sustainable Development Goals 2030' with specific focus on disadvantaged populations. (More details here at page 46 - 49).

AIILSG's Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Center:

AIILSG through its Corporate Social Responsibility Center has been 'Synergizing with CSRs to Enable Better World for the Disadvantaged'. An important strategy of the CSR center has been to customize interventions tailored to the local context and the communities as per their respective community needs, socio-economic profiles, and anthropological characteristics. The center works directly with under-privileged populations with special focus on children, women, differently-abled, minorities, and social disadvantaged such as SCs, STs, etc. (More details here at p 22 - 25)
